

SEEDS OF SOLIDARITY EDUCATION CENTER

Calendar of Events Summer and Fall 2007

Solidarity Saturday

Saturday June 9, 10 AM

Tour our farm and site, featuring solar greenhouses, energy efficient buildings, abundant market gardens, solar electric and hot water systems, biodiesel fueled vehicles. Optional potluck lunch follows the two-hour tour. Free!

Supporters Day

Saturday July 14, 10 AM

A new event to unite and appreciate those who sustain Seeds of Solidarity. Enjoy a guided tour by the founders, followed by a farm-fresh lunch on us. Kids welcome, activities provided. Not yet a contributor? Join the circle of supporters and attend this special day of gratitude.

Local Food, Local Energy Workshop

Tuesday August 7, 9AM-3PM

We're pleased to partner with Massachusetts Agriculture in the Classroom to host this workshop on local food and renewable energy for educators as part of their summer course series held on farms throughout the state. Registration, fee, more info at: www.aginclassroom.org or (508) 336-4426

Grow Food Everywhere! School Gardens and Greenhouses

Thursday August 16, 3-6 PM

A back to school workshop featuring school garden and greenhouse techniques, curriculum connections, and classroom cooking with local foods. Plus, ideas for farm to school events to promote MA Harvest for Students Week in September. Geared toward educators, all are welcome. PDPs available. $10 covers materials and refreshments. Call or email to reserve a spot at this popular workshop.

MA Harvest for Students Week

September 24- 28

Start school fresh with locally grown food! Organize an event in your school or community during this statewide week of action and celebration sponsored by the MA Farm to School Project. We'll be building a greenhouse at our regional high school to supply fresh greens to their cafeteria. More info: www.massfarmtoschool.org

9th Annual North Quabbin Garlic and Arts Festival

*Saturday and Sunday September 15 & 16,
10 AM to 5PM Forster's Farm, Orange*

We love organizing 'the festival that stinks' with our neighbors! Over 100 amazing art, regional agriculture and glorious garlic food vendors, renewable energy workshops & great entertainment on two solar powered stages. At our booths, enjoy garlic-growing workshops then choose from 16 varieties to plant or eat. Savor farm fresh cuisine served by our SOL Garden teens. Festival composting results in only 2 bags of trash for 10,000 folks! Admission: Adults $5/day or $8 for the weekend, kids under 12 free. Hike, bike, carpool, or ride the biodiesel shuttle for great raffle prizes. www.garlicandarts.org

Solidarity Saturday

Saturday October 6, 10 AM

This Solidarity Saturday (see June 9 description) coincides with the National Tour of Solar Homes and Buildings (www.nesea.org). Free. Come and get solar energized.

Seeds of Solidarity Education Center

a non profit organization that provides people of all ages with the inspiration and practical tools to use renewable energy and grow food in their communities

Our 2007 education programs are made possible through grants from Green Leaf Foundation, MA Society for Promoting Agriculture, New Hampshire Charitable Foundation, Belay Foundation, New England Grassroots Environmental Fund, LMG Foundation, Crockett Fund, and Contributions from Individuals.

We are grateful to our giving community. Those who believe in the vision of Seeds of Solidarity keep our youth, school, and public programs going strong through financial support. Please contact us about making a tax-deductible donation or make a secure contribution on-line at www.seedsofsolidarity.org.
